`Read ⇔ Cannibalism: From Sacrifice to Survival ? PDF eBook or Kindle ePUB

free

Quite an informative read, but you do need a strong stomach for the content. A little cannibalism allows humor, if you will. I came across this little gem at a book fair last week. Being dumped by the local library for 1.00. This is a quite delightful look at cannibalism from its earliest sacred roots, through necessity, a certain plane crash in the Andes, and human munching serial killers like Jeffrey Dahmer. Well written, absorbing, and leavened with the writer's wonderfully sarcastic sense of humor. I had read a fair bit about the subject, but the writer still covered areas I didn't know about, like Colorado cannibal Alferd Packer. The book is not particularly gory, so you can read it without danger of losing your lunch. It might be hard to find as the book was originally published in 1994. I love how the writer was able to joke. Thanks, Hans. I read this book out of boredom and I don't regret it. TIP: don't read this book while smiling at people in public. Also, don't eat jerky when reading this book. Actually, just don't read this book unless you are alone. Everyone in my school now thinks I want to eat them. Oh well. Good book, really well written compared to other cannibal books I've read.
