WOUNDED I AM MORE AWAKE

• FINDING MEANING AFTER TERROR •

JULIA LIBBLICH and ESAD BOSKALLO

am so grateful that this book exists It seems like not many people know much about Bosnia and Herzegovina, or the pain and loss it endured during the Yugoslavian War Being a child who s parents went through that war, I am appreciative that there are authors who are writing books like this one in order to educate the later generations Many war survivors don t like talking about the war, but this book shows a view of what it was like Although the book was devastating, it was an easy to read book, making it possible for everyone to read it This book should definitely be read at schools, especially human right s classes It would do good for everyone to read this book because it makes one realize how society is today, as well as to learn from this war.
