Ardeth Green Kapp is truly in tune with how others feel and what it is like to suffer trials She also knows how to pull out of herself and seek out others to lend a compassionate hand to

She teaches why it is not good to sit in a pity bowl I have always loved her and the words of advise and wisdom she has to offer She was the General Young Women s Pres When I was in Young Women s I have always admired her strength and courage. This was given to me by my sweet friend who lifts me up with her influence She is going through chemo right now, and I miss seeing her at school Her inscription in my book is as uplifting to me as anything the author wrote I hadn t read it until this weekend, but it s a week I needed the reminder of it s overall message The anniversaries of both my parents heart attacks, my mom s death, and my divorce finalization are all within a 2 week period, and I have an added feeling of disappointment atop those things My friend, who was in a head on collision the other day, asked our congregation as he led our Sacrament meeting today, How do I live the gospel in times of trial I believe most all of us are trying our best I believe Orson F Whitney s comments p163 No pain that we suffer, no trial that we experience is wasted It ministers to our education, to the development of such qualities as patience, faith, fortitude, and humility All that we suffer and all that we endure, especially when we endure it patiently, builds up our characters, purifies our hearts, expands our souls, and makes us tender and charitable, worthy to be called the children of God And it is through sorrow and suffering, toil and tribulation, that we gain the education that we came here to acquire and which will make us like our Father and Mother in heaven I love him for including Mother At times I ve wondered if He is still listening to my unceasing petitions But I have a testimony that He hears us This book, and my Father, have motivated me to write and memorize my own personal Strength Mantra Because I know satan gets to me through what my mom would have called stinkin thinkin I gathered thoughts throughout the book, and will formulate from them and other things, my mantra to recite when satan is spewing his fiery darts at me Look unto me in every thought doubt not, fear not, Jesus tells us Dad told me When satan discourages you with thoughts of your past, remind him of his future God is my strength He is who I depend on for sustenance I can do hard things And I do believe that we are better than we think we are Ours is a divine lineage and inheritance What have we to fear This was a very good book It reminded me to live my own life, that I m better than I sometimes think I am We shouldn t live cookie cutter lives, where we try to fit into someone else s mold It is written by an LDS author who shared many of her own experiences. This is an excellent book that helps build self esteem and self confidence, using gospel principles the scriptures, words of the modern day prophets, etc It s a MUST READ for all those who struggle with self esteem, self confidence, depression, etc. I really enjoyed this book It made me feel uplifted and like I had a grand purpose for my life It was a church book, but didn t come off as too preachy There was the right mixture of stories personal experiences and gospel thoughts.

*B*BETTER THAN YOU THINK YOU ARE

had a hard time getting into this book It should have only taken me a day or 2 at most to read it But I ve been reading it for a couple of weeks I forced myself to finish But interestingly enough, it was worth it The last chapter was what I needed today in my life It is the answer my heart is seeking But it was slow reading for me for some reason Odd, because I really love Ardeth Kapp have loved her other writing So I m not sure why this one was so hard to read for me. I read this again when I m feeling inadequate or unworthy It helps me realize I m not alone, that I have a Heavenly Father who loves me, guides me and answers my prayers I continue with renewed confidence and with the knowledge that with Heavenly Father s help, I am better *Download ? Better Than You Think You Are ? A Comforting Message Of Hope To Anyone Who Has Ever Wondered If She Measures Up When We Feel The Need For Encouragement, When We Wonder About Our Worth Or Ability, We Need A Little Reassuring Note Or Whisper In The Ear, You Are Better Than You Think You Are This Book Offers That Needed Boost, Acknowledging That We All Face Weighty Responsibilities That Seem Overwhelming At Times We All Have Doubts And Fears Drawing On Christ S Love For Us, We Can Remove The Dark Clouds That Challenge Our Confidence, Even In Adversity Writes Bestselling Author Ardeth Kapp, With The Lord S Help We Are Always Far, Far Better Than We Can Be By Ourselves About The Author Ardeth Greene Kapp Served As Young Women General President In The Church Of Jesus Christ Of Latter Day Saints, And Later Accompanied Her Husband, Heber, In His Assignments As President Of The Canada Vancouver Mission And President Of The Cardston Alberta Temple She Has Also Served On The Boards Of Several Corporations, Including Deseret Book, The Deseret Morning News, And Utah Youth Village A Popular Speaker, She Is The Bestselling Author Of Numerous Books, Including The Temple, Our Home Away From Home This book was written about ten years ago, but no matter, the truths it presents are still relevant today It is a great, quick, positive read for anyone who ever feels discouraged, distracted or weighted down with cares. Ardeth Kapp is one of my heroes I loved reading this book of hers and I plan on reading I just felt like I was a friend she was chatting with Someday I would love to have the love she has for people.
