MODERN CLASSICS

Oh, how much I loved this book Though this book was written when India was still obsessing over it s maan maryada culture, it to this date holds the same significance It s difficult to tell the truth and what s difficult is to digest it Truth once told can have the worst repercussions.The book touches the finer points of human emotions at the lower end of the society and how the lower one goes their pretensions they shed It has a lot of philosophical musings and the last part of the book was one that left me thinking Also a special mention to the translator a job well done.
