[[Read E-pub]] Ì Among The Flowers Ê A Fictional Family Saga About Ukrainian Immigrants To Central Alberta Canada Spanning The Years FromToThe Characters Face

Hardship In Establishing A Homestead, Ethnic Discrimination, And The Dirty Hungry Thirties This Story Contains Some Explicit Love Scenes And Is Intended For Young Adult To Adult Readers

Ms Wohlgemuth has written a tender story of third generation Ukrainian immigrants in Canada during a time span of 1936 to 1970 s We share their laughter, their love, their joys and their sorrows As the two Woychuk sisters leave the farm and go to Edmonton they are thrown in to a lifestyle far removed from the roots of their birth Although they may wish to leave their garlic fragrance and bohunk titles behind life in the big city often proves complicated These are two lusty women and their assertive approach to matters of a sexual nature creates both happiness and sorrow in their lives. Step back in time to follow a family of Immigrants and glimpse traditions of the Ukrainian culture The saga starts in an era when life was simpler or was it See what difficulties and sorrows two strong, independent sisters endure as they mature and how their actions affect their families. Interesting story of people immigrating to Canada and the hardships they encountered Kris writes well and her characters become real.
