Give thanks for this book It was worth the read for me Easy story, easy to read and fun too Wish I had readin the series because a lot of things were left hanging. ok, this was another difficult book for me to get thru, altho, not quite as bad as Healing Touch my ex husband is was a combination of 2 of the semi main characters in this book, and worse like the wife of one of one of those characters, i stayed in the marriage WAY too long partially because i didn t have much self worth of my own, and partially because i had a priest tell me i had to that whole til death do you part thing anyway my current husband is on his way home right now after having been gone on a mission trip for 6 days w 2 of our daughters i think i m going to appreciate him upon his return eventhan i originally anticipated, after having read this book amazing what a simple little story can do for a soul, huh good, quick, uplifting there IS a happy ending to the story the book s AND mine book

A Tiny Blessings Tale

This was a sweet little story I liked that Trista and Scott were able to help each other come to a place of understanding with their respective parents I also liked the bit of mystery that was added to the book Since the next book is the last in the series, I look forward to finding out if I m right about who has been wreaking havoc upon the Tiny Blessings Adoption agency.
