too hot to handle

chemistry was there right from the word go but there is not much by the way of a story The H is one obsessive angry dude who screams insults and threats when thwarted The h should be pleading for a restraining order instead of gazing at him in a bemused daze And I should have been disgusted at his behavior, not silently cheering him on Two grouses I felt quite cheated at the lack of a sexscene SH tends to do that builds up intense chemistry and then ends things platonically And the topic of the ow s presence in his life remained untouched. No bad at all I really enjoyed the old school drama of this book How the hero just falls for her hard and she is not understanding her own emotions as she has never felt this overwhelming desire before He was a recording artist being stalked by everyone including the paparazzi They are found in a compromising situation which allows him to develop his relationship with the heroine However, as usual he does not tell her his feeling and just acts crazy when I guy even looks at her for too long Ah sweet and creepy She does not what to make of his actions and her own reactions to him It would have been a 5 star if we had gotten some sex out of the deal Almost but nope Did not happen It would have been good too as it was a very passionate read until the end Loved it and a keeper for me. She watched in mounting terror as his face contorted into a mask of pure rage, his skin taut across his cheekbones I think, he said thickly, I m going to kill you Kate opened her mouth and tried to scream, but nothing came out His hands jerked her viciously towards him, his fingers curling around her neck How nice. Too Hot to Handle is the story of Kate and Luke. Basically, our hero is a world famous superstar, and a series of unfortunate events gets the heroine trapped in his world There is attraction, crazy jealousy, OM OW drama, violent kisses, threats, drama and a heartfelt confession. I think I do enjoy this author and her obsessive heroes, yet they often cross the line towards psychotic that is creepy and less romantic This one had a weak plot, unlikable MCs and too much drama Her body was crushed against his as his mouth descended in a bruising, punishing kiss, and she felt the salty flow of blood on her tongue as her lips grated against her teeth Did not like it. Safe 1.5 5
