[Read] ? The Golden Wreck: The Tragedy of the Royal Charter ? The Effects Of The Hurricane Of October Were To Shock The Nation Ships Were Sunk, Were Badly Damaged And Almost People Lost Their Lives More Than Half Of Those That Perished Were On One Ship The Royal Charter After Two Months At Sea Voyaging Than , Miles From The Australian Goldfields, She Was Just Hours Away From Her Home Port Of Liverpool, When She Was Wrecked On The Savage Rocks Of Moelfre, Anglesey Many Of Her Passengers Were Returning Home With The Fruits Of Their Labours GOLD The Worst Shipwreck In Welsh History, This Is The Story Of The Royal Charter and Her Gold Heartbreaking story of 400 plus people who lost their lives within sight of home. No women or children survived My interest in the wreck of the Royal Charter was piqued when visiting Anglesey on holiday and finding some information about it at the Kinmel Pub in the village The book, written in 1961 is as factual account as is possible about the ship and the event that led to its wrecking less than 100 yds off the shores on Anglesey An excellent account of an event I knew nothing about Worth a read for lovers of non fiction whether you have an interest in maritime history or not. This is an interesting story, and I liked that it went into some detail about the aftermath of the wreck The descriptions rarely explain any of the ship related jargon, so I'd mostly recommend it for those who've already read some nautical nonfiction.
