Hot, sexy book which begins with a quick bar hook up, evolves into a polyamorous m m m relationship that eventually breaks down into a couple, and then winds up in jail Hilarious drag humor, and timely political views on both sides of the fence Bunny Boyle Adam the star of the show and Ryan, former boyfriend and closeted athletics coach are at the center of the story The sweetest Disney princess drag queen Helen Heels Stephen , an aspiring drag baby Miss Rose Luis and the up for everything stoner bartender Justin round out the cast Wonderfully entertaining and realistic in its portrayal of modern life. 6 1 18 Friday FREEBIE via A Deliciously Dark Romantic Comedy Jess Whitecroft does it again In All That Drag she delivers one of the most hilarious, irreverent and snarky dark Rom Com I have read Bunny, why are you still doing Fifty Shades of Grey and I m like You know what I ll stop doing it when that shit agrees to go the fuck away The laughs were warming up now It s like smallpox It s unnecessary It should have been eradicated years ago And it s not even dirty Maybe it s kinky for straight people, but I m like Bitch, I cut my teeth on a cockring Is there fisting Cough No, listen there s like a list of things in this book at one point, of sex acts like, wax play, edge play, vaginal fisting, anal fisting, anal sex, buttplugs, watersports, bull whips and all the really unfortunate things that happen to glass topped coffee tables And did I mention this story is filthy, smutty and hot AF Because, OMGBaby Jane Bette Davis stuck Blanche Joan Crawford in a wheelchair, this is one scorching sultry tale Someone read this to me, this list of things that sounds like it should end with The Aristocrats, and I m like Fuck yeah I m a pervert I ll totally read that, and God, I was pissed You know what that shit was It was part of the paperwork That dumbshit sex contract he makes her sign That was just a list of things she doesn t want to do and most of which don t even appear in the fucking book I was so mad, I swear to God It s false advertising You should not be promising people pornography if you can t deliver All That Drag is a wickedly entertaining tale with larger than life heroes and secondary characters A cheeky, playful and feel good plot who leaves reader wanting.Ryan remembered all those aunts and grandmothers who growing up had impressed on him the importance of always having clean underwear in case you were hit by a bus Apparently, when scrambling to save the life of some mangled individual who had just bounced off the fender of a bus, EMTs got really hardcore judgmental about the state of that person s drawers And never mind that you d probably fill your underpants right around the second you realized you were about to get hit by a bus anyway, but this thing had never been adequately explained to Ryan All the same, he couldn t stop thinking about it, and resolved to cross the street very carefully Didn t want to get knocked down by a bus and get taken to the hospital with a big, red buttplug lodged in his anus He couldn t imagine anything embarrassing Awesome start to a new series. DNF at 22% No rating. I m not particularly interested in drag, so I wasn t particularly interested in reading this book despite having enjoyed a couple other books by Jess Whitecroft So it was just because I was not in a great reading space that I picked this up because I do really like Whitecroft s writing It took a little bit to get into the story, but it sucked me in with a vengeance This story really did not reveal itself as I expected First off this is not your typical romance No boy meets boy and they pair up and end up with the HEA everyone can see coming for 100 pages Two wuv lovers should stop reading this review right now and look for another book Ryan was not really ready to deal with his undealt with feelings that he had for Adam in college view spoiler For quite a few pages I wasn't even sure that Ryan and Adam would ever even hook up However, that made their hard won love even sweeter hide spoiler 3.5 stars This was pretty fun for the most part It's sharp It's got good snark I got it for free on A pretty successful read The plot took a weird turn just before the end which left me feeling a little off kilter view spoiler Adam and Luis are sentenced to prison for drug possession Adam is out in 30 days but Luis gets a year I'm having trouble articulating exactly why this made me so uncomfortable It's just the prison pipeline that exists for POC in the U.S is such a fucked up behemoth of systemic racism and the way it was used in this story left a bad weird taste in my mouth hide spoiler Freebie at right now 3.5 4 Reading my way through Jess Whitecroft's backlist This is not my favorite, although I love all of the characters and am looking forward to the next Fubar As usual, Whitecroft skillfully pulls together a challenging set of characters, channels a bit of James Lear in her sex scenes raw, rowdy romps, and moves the story along at a near breakneck pace In this case the pace was somewhat too frantic for me, like Bunny's clever, snarky repartee it can be a bit much Ever needed to tell someone you love to just shut up a minute and breathe Well, it was kind of like that I'm almost compelled to read these stories in one sitting The writing shows brilliance, but a few of the typos I caught in my own near frantic read are perhaps telling both reader and author to slow down.
