It s a fun read You ll be pleasantly surprised. Loved this book as I can relate to this very well Damayanthi is typical of middle class girls who grow up in Chennai, study in girls schools and colleges Her entry into the corporate world reminded me of mine The story resonates well and is so typical of Chennai life. A very funnily and differently written book I loved the way Nirupama built her protagonist and the story using the medium of letters Also the characters were not prim, proper and perfect making them easier to relate to And while the whole story was fun to read, I wished the ending were a little different and perhaps happier. An amusing story about a brainy Tamilian girl whose conservative family wants her to get married ASAP while she wants to work and have fun Witty writing, racy read, simple characters However it is written in the form of letters narrating the daily existence of the young girl This I think took away a bit from the merit of writing Otherwise okay to read.
